of the US UN Delegation at the time the PRC entered the UN. Prior to the Peking assignment, he was Chairman of the Republican National Committee. He is a two term Republican Congressman from Texas, his adopted State. His family originally came from Connecticut where his father, Prescott Bush, was a U. S. Senator (Republican).

During World War II he was a naval pilot. He was in the oil business (Zapata) in Texas prior to becoming a Congressman. Mr. Bush is 51 years old, is married (wife's name Barbara) and has five children, the oldest is a recent graduate of Harvard Business School and the youngest, his only daughter, age 15, is at Farmington.

4. Recommended Topics: Just prior to your luncheon Mr. Bush will have been briefed for about one hour by DDI/OSR on Chinese strategic weapons, Chinese Defense Spending, and the implications of the growth of the Chinese navy. He will also have had discussions with DDO representatives. I suggest you may want to ask Mr. Bush how he views the internal Chinese political scene, and prospects for Chinese foreign trade, especially in oil, a subject which keenly interests Mr. Bush. You may also want to discuss the Taiwan Situation in terms of Peking's view of Taiwan and Taiwan's durability and prospects after the death of President Chiang Kai Shek.
